

JIMMY CHOO

To Our Jimmy Choo Community,

The events of the past days and weeks have been unprecedented, however, our main priority continues to be the health and wellbeing of our associates, our customers and our community.

As a result, we have made the decision to temporarily close all of our stores in North America.

Taking care of our associates is core to who we are, so we have committed to pay our store employees during this period. We are monitoring this situation and will continue to make decisions that are in the best interest of our team, our customers and the greater community.

We will continue to serve you online and we offer complimentary shipping during this time.

As you know, this is an evolving situation, so we will update you as necessary. In the meantime, please take care of yourselves and your loved ones.
